Important Notice

A few months ago I announced that I was “scaling back Media Watch” to focus on articles involving end-of-life care for underserved and vulnerable populations. I have decided to retire, but still very much a keen observer from “the wings.” My decision was noted in the October issue of the newsletter of the International Association for Hospice & Palliative Care: https://bit.ly/3egAIxG. This is the last issue, therefore, of Media Watch …and, I take this opportunity to express my most sincere gratitude for the expressions of appreciation and support from so many members of the hospice and palliative care communities-at-large who helped in no small measure to extend the reach of Media Watch as an advocacy, research and teaching tool. Barry R. Ashpole

MY INVOLVEMENT IN HOSPICE AND PALLIATIVE CARE DATES FROM 1985. As a communications consultant and educator, I’ve been involved in or responsible for a broad range of initiatives at the community, regional, provincial and national level. My current focus is advocacy and policy development in addressing issues specific to those living with a terminal illness – both patients and families.
